MARTIN FAMILY QUARTERLY, P. O. BOX 140880, DALLAS, TEXAS 75214

ISSN 0099-1864 Michal Martin Farmer, Editor

The Quarterly is published for persons doing genealogical research on Martin families in the United States from the first settlements to the present. Emphasis is placed on research before 1850. Our purpose is to document Martin families using public documents and family records.

Queries are published free for our current subscribers and each subscriber is entitled to one query in each issue. Queries are not published for non-subscribers. There is no word limit, but we reserve the right to edit. Try to include as many dates and places as possible as to marriages, children, places of residence, etc. Please put your query on a separate sheet of paper and write "query" at the top of the page.

We want no errors in this quarterly. If you know of any error please notify us as soon as possible.

The quarterly is published in May, August, November and February with a subscription rate of $15.00 per volume. All subscriptions begin with the May issue.

The first issue of the Quarterly was Vol. I, #1 - May 1975. It has been published quarterly since that date.
We are unable to assist non-subscribers with their Martin lineage.

Allen Co., Ky. was formed in 1815 from Warren and Barren Cos. Simpson Co., Ky. was formed in 1819 from Allen, Logan and Warren Cos. Many of the families in early Warren and Logan Cos. were cut off into Allen and Simpson Cos., Ky. The records of Warren Co. have survived, but only a few records from Allen and Simpson Cos. have. The marriage records of Allen Co., Ky. do survive. They were published in Vol. X, #1 of the Martin Family Quarterly. Circuit Court Book A from Simpson Co., Ky. survives.

Peter, Edward and John Martin were sons of John Martin and Ann Barbara Lewis of Goochland Co., Va., descendants of the Martins of Manakintown. Peter, Edward and John moved to Warren Co., Ky. after 1805. They were then cut off into Allen and Simpson Co. The children of Peter, Edward and John migrated to Ala., Miss. and Tx. and their descendants will be presented in a future article regarding the Descendants of John Martin of Manakintown, Va.

ADAM AND LEWIS MARTIN OF RUTHERFORD CO., N. C., UPPER LOUISIANA AND MISSOURI TERRITORY

by Michal Martin Farmer

This article is made possible by the help of Bob Hildebrand of Lansing, Illinois; Marjorie Helmholz of Tucson, Arizona; Dr. E. Edward Kani of Raleigh, N. C.; Hazel Duncan Arnold of Plainview, Texas and many other descendants. We have all exchanged documents and ideas about Adam and Lewis Martin.

We have followed-up on many leads and worked on innumerable theories concerning these two men over the last ten years. This article contains what we can prove about these Martin brothers. If I have forgotten anything, I know the others will let me know.

Lewis and Adam Martin moved from Virginia to Rutherford Co., N. C. sometime between 1785 and 1789. This is calculated from answers their children and grandchildren gave to census takers in Missouri. They are listed next to each other in the 1790 census of Rutherford Co., N. C., 2nd company. Also living in the 2nd company and elsewhere in Rutherford Co. in 1790 were families that are proven kin or who removed to Upper Louisiana about the same time they did, 1797-1810.

Adam Martin's wife applied for a Revolutionary pension and his children applied in 1852 in St. Louis Co., Mo. Adam's oldest son, Lewis Martin, said, "he often heard his parents telling of their marriage and that they had to go thirty miles after a minister to marry them...he does not recollect the officers names that his father served under, more than Gen. George Washington...he heard his father say that he was at the taking of Cornwallis...his father lived and went from Augusta County in the State of Virginia." An Adam and Lewis Martin are found on the 1782-4 tax lists for Augusta Co., Va.

A careful study of the deeds made by persons living in the 2nd company of Rutherford Co., N. C. in 1790 reveals that most of them lived near the south fork of White Oak Creek. As stated earlier, this is where Adam and Lewis Martin lived. This area became Polk Co., N. C. many years after Adam and Lewis Martin left the area.

We have found no deeds for Adam Martin in Rutherford Co., N. C. or the surrounding area, but Lewis Martin did own several pieces of property in Rutherford Co. He purchased land from

George Taber in 1793, Richard Jenkins in 1795 and John Sullins, Sr. in 1797. Lewis sold his land in 1810 to Andrew Hamilton, Jacob Heflin and Richard Champion.

Robert McMullin, believed to be the father or brother of Mary Martin, wife of Adam Martin, was living in Rutherford Co., N.C. in 1790. Also, many families who removed to Upper Louisiana and intermarried with the children and grandchildren of Adam and Lewis Martin (or who lived nearby) had been in Rutherford Co. in 1790: Musick, Jenkins, Hawkins, Jones, Williams, Miller, Long, Whiteside, English, Wallace, Sullins, Neville, Underwood and many more. Thomas Roy Musick, father of Sarah Musick who married David Martin, son of Adam Martin, was counted just over the line from Rutherford co., N. C. in Greenville Co., 96th Dist., S. C. in 1790.

Many neighbors and relatives of Adam and Lewis Martin in St. Louis Co., Mo. had come from Rutherford Co., N. C., but lived a few years in Mercer, Lincoln and Barren Counties, Ky. between 1796 and 1802 before going on to Missouri. There is no evidence that Lewis or Adam Martin lived in Kentucky though.

Adam Martin was in Upper Louisiana by 1797 and resided there until his death in 1835. The area where he lived became St. Louis Co., Mo. Lewis probably did migrate before 1800, but all of his family wasn't living there until after 1800. Lewis was counted on the 1800 census of Rutherford Co., N. C. and his son, Adam Martin (called Jr.) was married in Rutherford Co. in 1807. Of course, Adam, Jr., could have gone to Missouri several years after his father did. Lewis had completely sold out in N. C. by 1810.

Adam Martin acquired a Spanish Land Grant in 1797 in St. Charles Dist. where in 1803 he employed David King Price to gather his corn, paying two cows and calves. Robert Owen had formed a station near Fee Fee Creek and Adam Martin, Thomas Hardy, William Hooper, Jacob Lurty and William Clark joined Owen in forting, because they were being bothered by Indians. This fort was later called Marais des Liards, Village a Robert and Owens Station. Finally, it was known as Bridgeton, Missouri. This area is in the northern end of present St. Louis Co., Mo.

Records were kept in this wilderness. The lieutenant-governor, DeLassus, ordered a census in 1799. Marais des Liards, the seventh largest settlement of a total of 12 in Upper La., had a population of 379. In 1799 there were 153 horses, 629 cows and the previous year 1,019 bushels of wheat, 1,604 bushels of corn and 6,800 pounds of tobacco were produced. There were 42 slaves living in Marais des Liards. Supplies were ordered from

Natchitoches and New Orleans.

Present St. Louis and St. Charles Counties, Missouri became part of Missouri Territory in 1812 and the state of Missouri in 1821. The American settlers of Upper Louisiana were doing fine until their government took over. As more civilization came, so did new rules. All of the Spanish Land Grants were layed out in arpents, usually in long retangular strips. Our government wanted tracts of land surveyed in squares by the acre.

Most of the Spanish grants hadn't been perfected and the early settlers lost many of their grants when our government took over. A settler also had to prove he had cultivated and occupied the land or it was considered abandoned and someone else was allowed to settle on it. The Spanish and French hadn't even followed their own rules. Only a handful of their land grants had actually been recorded and perfected by the Spanish authorities in New Orleans before the Louisiana Purchase in 1803.

The Board of Commissioners of the General Land Office of the United States took evidence from 1808 to 1812 and in later years at St. Louis concerning the land claims of the residents of present Missouri before 1803. The Final Report was made and published by the Government Printing Office in 1835. None of Adam or Lewis Martin's claims were included in the 1835 report. But, both made claims included in the Grants from the American States Papers, Class VII, Public Lands - Land Claims in the Missouri Territory, 18th Congress, No. 206, 2nd Series - Communicated to the House of Representatives, Dec. 1, 1812 - General Land Office:

Adam Martin claimed 600 arpents of land in Missouri in the Dist. of St. Charles, produced a concession from Zenon Trudeau, mostly destroyed, dated 16 Feb. 1797 and further acknowledged by Charles D. DeLassus, certificate granted for same 10 Sept. 1802, survey taken 20 Oct. 1803, certified 20 March 1804. Testimony was taken 7 Sept. 1808. Kinkead Caldwell swore he saw a man named Price gathering corn on the tract claimed in Oct. of 1803. Price then told him that claimant had employed him to make the improvement. He said the place claimed was a frontier situation and the Indians were troublesome at that time. Phoebe Wallace swore that on 20 Dec. 1803 the claimant had a wife and nine children, eight of them living with him and the claimant has another claim for 200 arpents of land at Marais des Liards which he bought of Jacob Luntz. On 6 June 1808, the opinion of the Board of Commissioners was that the claim "ought not be confirmed."

Louis (Lewis) Martin claimed 300 arpents of land on the south side of the Missouri, Dist. of St. Louis, produced a special permission to settle from Charles D. DeLassus dated 8 Feb. 1801, surveyed 25 June and certified 10 Dec. 1805. Testimony was taken, 23 Aug. 1806, by Thomas R. Musick who swore Lewis Martin had been in the country about seven or eight years and that he began settling on the tract in 1804. Testimony was taken on 7 Sept. 1808 from Kinkead Caldwell who swore he had come to the country eight years ago this fall and found the claimant residing there and believes he has continued to live there ever since. The claimant began his settlement on said land in the fall of 1805 and had inhabited and cultivated the same ever since. On 6 June 1810, the opinion of the Board of Commissioners was that the claim "ought not be granted." (This claim may be for Adam Martin's son, Lewis, and not his brother, Lewis).

Adam Martin appeared as a witnesss for Henry Stephenson in connection with his land claim. Adam Martin said he was present in July of 1803 when Stephenson applied for and received permission to settle from James Mackay, who was then a commandant. Stephenson had received a claim from Arthur Burns for 1080 arpents of land.

Adam Martin did have a confirmed claim to 170 acres of land called Survey 5 which was recorded in Survey Book 7, Missouri Field Notes. This 170 acres where he resided is in Township 46 North, Range 6 East, 5th Principal Meridian. It is located just south of Coldwater Creek and was adjoining the St. Ferdinand Commonfield and directly north of Marais des Liards in the northern part of present St. Louis Co., Mo. near Bridgeton.

In 1807 the districts of the Territory of Missouri were divided into townships. Marais des Liards (Bridgeton) became part of St. Ferdinand Township, which in 1807 had a population of 205. In 1812, St. Ferdinand Township became part of the new county of St. Louis. Until 1818, St. Louis Co. included the present counties of Gasconde, Osage, Franklin, part of Jefferson and part of Maries Counties.

Also in 1807, a Baptist church was organized in St. Louis Co. on Fee Fee Creek. Tradition says it was organized at the home of John Sullins. Charter members are said to be Terrell Musick and sister Susan Link; John and Jane Sullins; Richard Sullins and wife Susan; Prudence Musick, wife of David Musick; John Howdershell and wife Joicy (Joyce Neville, sister of Mary Musick); and Rev. Thomas R. Musick and wife, Mary (maiden name, Mary Neville).

The church was called Fee Fee Baptist Church and they first met in a log house on Fee Fee Creek in 1815. Adam and Mary Martin were members of this church. Thomas R. Musick was the first pastor and served until his death in 1842.

ADAM MARTIN

1. Adam[1] Martin

was born 28 Sept. 1755, d. 14 April 1835, St. Ferdinand Township, St. Louis Co., Mo. He married 16 March 1778, in or near Augusta Co., Va. to Mary according to the Revolutionary pension application of his wife and children. Mary was b. 16 March 1762, d. 16 May 1850, St. Louis Co., Mo. The birthdate of Robert McMillin, b. 7 Feb. 1728 is recorded in their bible record. Robert McMillin is believed to be Mary's father. Adam Martin's bible is in the possession of Dr. E. Edward Kani, Raleigh, N. C.

Adam and Mary Martin are buried in Fee Fee Baptist Church Cemetery near Bridgeton, St. Louis Co., Mo.

Adam Martin died testate. His will was made 12 Aug. 1833 and proved 4 May 1835, St. Louis. The will names all nine of his children including his two deceased daughters, Jane or Jenny and Nancy. He mentions Jane's six children and Nancy's three children. Witnesses to the will were Hartley Lanham, Wm. Thomas and David Thomas.

The estate packet of Adam Martin includes several lists of heirs and the payments they received as well as affidavits proving many of his grandchildren. The payments continued until after 1855, because the estate wasn't divided until after Mary Martin's death.

Adam Martin's will gave "my beloved wife Mary Martin the whole of my property after the payment of all my just debts...and at her death whatever of my estate that may remain on or at her death then...proceeds thereof to be divided amongst my heirs." Mary Martin died 16 May 1850.

Adam and Mary Martin had nine children. Adam's will gave one equal share to all his children except Jehoida Martin was to receive his share less $250 that had been advanced to him and Robert N. Martin "having had his part in the sale and conveyance of my farm this day entered (12 Aug. 1833) is therefore excluded from any benefit of this will." All settlements were divided into eight equal parts.

FROM THE EDITOR

The main reason I started this quarterly was because of Adam Martin. He is my father's 3rd great grandfather. I published research on his lineage in Vol. I and II. Then I got interested in everyone elses Martins and never returned to the main objective.

My grandfather, David Springer Martin, lived in Valley View, Cooke Co., Texas. From about 1960 until his death in 1967 I visited my grandparents on school vacations and asked my grandfather countless questions. Among other things he told me his father was Joseph Elisha Martin, his grandfather was Madison Green Martin and his great grandfather was David Martin who married a Musick. He said they were from St. Louis Co., Mo. and they once owned the land where the St. Louis airport was built. He knew they had Spanish Land Grants. All of this was quoted from memory. Most of his knowledge has been proven.

My grandfather's brother, Jack Martin, of Valley View, also helped. Hazel Duncan Arnold of Plainvew, Tx. was researching on our family and we corresponded for many years. In 1975 Bob Hildebrand and Marjorie Helmholz became known to me. Both of them had much research I didn't have. We can document the majority of the descendants of Adam and Lewis Martin, but we continue the search for their parents and siblings. Their origin eludes us.

I'm trying to find additional information on William Martin and his wife Jane. They were in the 1850 census of Harrison Co., W. Va. William, age 86, b. N. J.; Jane, age 55, b. N. J. Children: Luther, age 30, b. N. J.; Emily, age 25, N. J.; and Fayette, age 19, b. N. J. William Martin m. 1788 to his first wife, Susannah Stout, probably in Harrison Co., W. Va. William was a Rev. War patriot and received a pension in 1833. He died in 1851 and Jane (she signed name as Jane Chidester) applied for pension. Were there children in addition to three mentioned in the 1850 census record? Any help regarding Martin-Chidester family history will be welcomed.

The only record found which gives my gg grandfather's age is the 1850 census of Madison Co., Mo.: "Jesse Martin, age 67, b. N. C." Jesse was probably in Tenn. by 1809. Son, Gillison Martin, was born there in 1813 and he was in Perry Co., Mo. by 1820/1 when his son Moses was born. By 1860 Jesse and his wife, Sarah, were both dead and son Gillison Martin's family was in Warren Co., Mo. Family tradition says Gillison Martin's family returned to South Missouri after the Civil War started, and he died in 1866. No census data for his family has been found for 1870, but in 1880 the remnants of the family were in Howell Co. & some of the descendants still live in that county. Efforts to find Jesse Martin's parents in N. C. have been unsuccessful. The will of Joseph Martin of Anson Co., N. C. dated 13 Feb. 1787 names children, John Hail, Jesse, and Nancy. The only Jesse I've found in Anson Co. was too old to have been the one I seek. I have long believed Jesse belonged to the family of Lewis and Adam Martin, brothers who lived in Rutherford Co., N. C., 1800. Lewis also moved to Missouri and some of the same names were given children in the two families. Both families intermarried with the Carrico family. There was a Jesse Martin in the 1800 census of Rutherford Co., N. C. living alone, aged 16-26. Has anybody identified him? Only circumstantial evidence as I have indicated links Jesse with Lewis and Adam Martin. Only one marriage in the early 1800's shows any promise: that of Jesse Martin, 3 Feb. 1806 in Pittsylvania Co., Va. to Betsey Ramsey, dau. of Frances Ramsey, with surety Henry Atkinson. I find no Frances Ramsey in Pittsylvania Co., so have concluded this is her mother's name. Sarah Elizabeth is a favorite family name among Jesse's desc.
